Code of Conduct – Players

Safari Badminton is completely committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its players. Safari Badminton believes that it is important that players, coaches, volunteers and parents associated with the a session should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Players are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Steve Farey – Head Coach.

A player at a Safari Badminton session is expected to abide by the following code of conduct:

- Players must play within the rules; listen to and respect the Coach at all times; respect officials and their decisions.
- Respect Safari Badminton equipment and report any damages.
- All players must respect the rights, dignity and value of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- Players should promote and demonstrate a supportive attitude towards others at a session.
- Players should demonstrate good time keeping when arriving for a session to ensure they maximise the benefits of attending the whole session.
- Players must wear suitable kit and clothing for all sessions;
 - Clean trainers
 - T-shirt
 - Shorts or sports skirt
 - Tracksuit trousers
 - Jumper
 - No outdoor shoes, jeans or caps
- Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated.
- Players should promote their own healthy lifestyle both at a session and in day to day life. Safari Badminton does not promote or advise the consumption of alcohol, taking of drugs or smoking.
